

Regina Nock, CPA
Principal

As of January 2021, Regina Nock has merged her practice, Nock Accounting & Tax, PLC, with Capocore Professional Advisors and has assumed the position of a Principal at the firm. She manages the client accounting services area of the practice along with performing tax engagements and providing business advisory services. Her background includes work in both the public and private sectors and spans a variety of industries in roles ranging from staff accountant to controller. She received both her Bachelor & Master of Accountancy degrees from Walsh College in Troy, Michigan, and is a licensed Certified Public Accountant with over 15 years of professional experience.

Regina is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the Michigan Association of Certified Public Accountants (MICPA) and is involved in the MICPA's Small Practitioners Task Force. She is also a member within the Lakes Area Chamber of Commerce and serves on the board of both the Hospitality House Food Pantry and the Lakes Area Community Coalition. In her free time (outside of tax season, of course), she enjoys genealogy, gardening, cooking, riding her motorcycle, and travelling about the United States.
